

REQUEST AND CONSENT FOR A REUNION

Children's Home Society has been appointed as the intermediary by the Virginia Department of Social Services to begin the search and reunion process with your birth family. A onetime, non-refundable fee of $500.00 is required prior to beginning the search.

Following the search for your birth parents, the Virginia Department of Social Services requires us to report on the outcome of the case. Our report to the Virginia Department of Social Services may be any of the following; we cannot find your birth parent(s), we have found your birth parent(s) but she (they) will not meet you or share information with you, we have found your birth parent(s) and she (they) will share non-identifying information only or we have found your birth parent(s) and she (they) will share identifying information.

We cannot guarantee the outcome of a search. We will report our findings to the Virginia Department of Social Services (VDSS), following this recommendation; VDSS will grant or deny permission for disclosure.
