

A GIFT IN YOUR HONOR

*Roses are red
Violets are blue
Moms make a difference
Especially you!*

This Mother's Day, I celebrate all the ways you have made a difference in my life by making a difference in the lives of Virginia's at-risk children.

I have made a gift in your honor to Children's Home Society of Virginia, a private non-profit organization committed to finding safe, permanent adoptive families for Virginia children in foster care.

Today there are more than 1,300 children of all ages in Virginia's foster care system waiting to be adopted. Children who need someone to tuck them in at night. Children who want someone to help them with their homework. Children who deserve someone to champion their hopes and dreams. Just like you did for me.

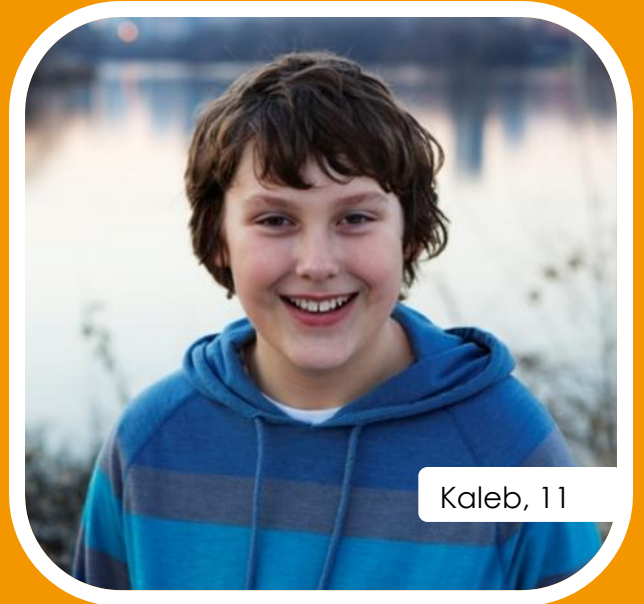

I'm lucky to have a mother like you. Let's help CHS find every child a mother to love them—for life.

Happy Mother's Day!
