CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA 9TH ANNUAL LEGACY EVENT KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

VCU Coach Mike Rhoades

After a playing career at Lebanon Valley, Rhoades accepted his first coaching job at Randolph-Macon in 1996 under Hal Nunnally; at just 25 years old he was promoted to head coach. He would go 197-76 in 10 seasons, reaching four NCAA Division III Tournaments and two Sweet Sixteens. Rhoades then served on Shaka Smart's staff at VCU with four-straight NCAA tournament teams and the 2010-11 Final Four squad. In 2014, Rhoades was named the head coach at Rice University. Rhoades engineered a turnaround of the Rice program...his third year record of 23-12 was the second-most wins in program history. On March 21, 2017, Rhoades was named the head coach at VCU.

Trauma Mentor Carl Price

Carl is a former foster child, a cancer survivor, and a US Navy Veteran. He had the honor to speak before a US Senate hearing on Childhood Trauma and provides training on Childhood Trauma and Complex Trauma. Additionally, Carl has mentored youth who are in foster care and those who have aged-out of foster care. Carl is an adviser and helps many organizations develop a broad perspective and background in areas of trauma, foster care, community organizations and more. "I am able to help others because I too have faced struggles and have learned how to win."
